

Inspection

Equipment in excellent condition ensures you the best price for meat

Inspection is an opportunity for increased profit

Your productivity is only as good as your equipment and by leaving these in the hands of your skilled Frontmatec technician you will achieve a continuous high standard and performance of your equipment, ensuring you improved yield and in the end prolonged life-time.

Even for new slaughter lines, inspections is your guarantee that the equipment runs efficiently and continues to provide you with the highest possible yield - and in time, inspections can also prevent damages and breakdowns.

Standard inspections are performed during normal working hours with 2-4 technicians on site, depending on the size of plant.

Prices from 3,000 Euro (no repair, only adjustments).

Please do not hesitate to contact us for more information - we are just a phone call away.
